A fully 8 yearsold Caol Ilaaged in first fillbourbon casks.At the nose itoffers only a hint of thepeaty intensityit has in store:very medicinal,very phenolic,but almost friendly. At thefirst sip, a hugemaritime blastof iodine andpeat, ashy andtarry, envelops your senses. After the initial shock, you start to get the delicious nuances: a fruity freshness of bananas and ripe white wine. Again, it's almost buttery, but mineral and very lemony, with the peat burning hot and thick for several minutes.
